Don't Forget the Election
NEXT TUESDAY!
VOTE THE REPUBLICAN TICKET.

"Once more to the breach, dear friends, once more!"
This is undoubtedly the last election we shall be called upon to attend before coming into the Union as a State. The last battle to fight—the last victory to win! The drum has been sounded—the bugle notes are heard! Let us now march forth to conquer! It is an important election. Two United States Senators depend upon it!— A Representative to Congress is to be chosen! A State ticket is to be elected! The question of Slavery or No Slavery in Kansas will only then be fully and forever settled by that result! Let every freeman, then, obey the call, and march in unbroken line to the polls next Tuesday!

Vote for Martin F. Conway for Congress.

The Democrats at Work!
The Democracy have no hope of carrying the election in this district next Tuesday, but they will nevertheless poll every vote they can, knowing it will count in the general result. Every stratagem which their wily nature can conceive will be employed to catch votes—such as promised aid to Kaw settlers, securing mail routes, obtaining grants of land for railroads to run through certain localities, and all that sort of thing. They will beg, buy, or steal all the votes they can! Their power lies in such means as this. Republicans! remain true to your principles! Watch the designs of your enemies, and BE AT THE POLLS ALL DAY!

Vote for Charles Robinson for Governor.

Whoop!
It is said that Sammedary has secured all the "Indian votes" on the Kaw Reserve.— The price paid was eighty old muskets!— Which "Sam" they belonged to is not stated, but we presume it makes no difference.

Vote for J. P. Root for Lieut. Governor.

Free State Democrats!
Recollect that when Kansas was being overrun by foreign invaders, slave-breeder and ballot-box stuffers, Samuel Medary was appointed Governor of Minnesota, to inaugurate and carry through the same schemes of villainy there—and did so far as he was able! He afterwards endorsed the Le-compton policy of James Buchanan by accepting the office of Postmaster at Columbus, Ohio,—an Anti-Leocompton Democrat being turned out to give him place! This is the Free State, Popular Sovereignty Democrat you are called upon to vote for next Tuesday!

Vote for John W. Robinson for Sec. State.

Bring out your Wagons!

And see that every voter is at the polls next Tuesday. Our admission into the Union as a State this winter depends upon a LARGE vote this time! Rally! Rally! Rally!

Vote for George S. Hillyer for Auditor.

VOL. 3—No. 17.

EMPORIA, KANSAS, DECEMBER 3, 1859.

WHOLE NO. 121.

The March of Freedom.
"Freedom's battle, once begun, Requiesced from bleeding sire to son, Though baffled oft, is always won." Never was there a truer sentiment than that of the poet, in the three lines that head this article. Close akin to this sentiment is that of the immortal Webster, contained in his celebrated oration at the laying of the corner-stone of Bunker Hill monument.
Said the orator upon that occasion: "if the spark of civil and religious liberty be kindled, it will burn. Human agency cannot extinguish it. Like the earth's central fire, it may be smothered for a time. Oceans may overwhelm it; mountains may press it down; but its inherent and unconquerable force will leave both the ocean and the land, and, at some time or another, in some place or another, the volcano will break out, and flame up to Heaven."

Never was this sentiment more forcibly illustrated or proven, than by the progress of the anti-slavery sentiment and movement in this country. There was a time when, throughout almost the entire North, liberty of speech, upon the subject of the aggres-sions of the slave propaganda, was denied.
Scarcely twenty years have passed since, even in Massachusetts, it was almost as much as one's life was worth to advocate the cause of the oppressed African race, and oppose the ambitious political schemes of the slave-holding oligarchy. Within twenty-five years legislators have been silenced there by being pelted from the rostrum with rotten eggs, so strong was public sentiment against the free discussion of that great question—the rights of humanity.
But, behold the change. The great party of freedom have now nearly seventy thousand majority in favor of free soil in Massachusetts, and one hundred and fifty thousand in New England. Who need despair of an ultimate and glorious triumph, with these facts before them? Surely, "if the spark of civil and religious liberty is kindled, it will burn."

As late as 1848, there was only a little band of earnest anti-slavery men on the Western Reserve, in the great State of Ohio.
The central and southern portions of that State were entirely unaffected by the aggres-sions of Slavery. There were no free presses there. Fossilized old fogymen ignored the principles of Thomas Jefferson, and pressed down the free energies of the State like a nightmare. But how is it now?
Liberty has waved her magic wand over the State, and roused into intense activity the dormant love of freedom in the human heart. The result has been seen in the enormous majority which has been piled up there for the right.
So it will yet be in Illinois, in Indiana, in Pennsylvania, in California and Oregon, and, in time, indeed, even in every Southern State.

With the late succession of glorious victories which the Republican party has achieved in every Northern State, we are confident that we shall triumph in the next Presidential contest!

Vote for Wm. Tholen for Treasurer.

The Proclamation of Election.
The official call from the Board of State Canvassers for the election next Tuesday, which we publish elsewhere, defines the duty of each county—besides voting for State officers, District Judge, Senators and State Representatives—to elect a Probate Judge, District Court Clerk, Superintendent of Public Instruction, and for each precinct two Justices of the Peace. We had overlooked the provision made in the Constitution for the latter officers, and not receiving the proclamation of election until after our last paper went to press, had printed and circulated a number of tickets without names for these offices. However, steps have been taken to re-supply every township with tickets for a full set of officers—with blanks for filling in names for some—and we hope the people will see to having the proper tickets filled out and voted.

Upon consultation with prominent men in various precincts of this county, we have placed the name of A. J. MITCHELL, of Forest Hill, for Probate Judge, and D. A.
PAINTER, of Emporia, for District Court Clerk, on the tickets for this county—both capable men and true Republicans—and hope they will receive a unanimous support.

Vote for B. F. Simpson for Att'y General.

The American Sentinel, of last week, speaking of the county line change in connection with the Judgeship, says "it was a measure that the people of Breckenridge were opposed to," and that "the citizens on the three mile strip preferred to remain as they were." Now, for every settler on the "three mile strip" which the Sentinel can find who is opposed to that change, we will find fifty in favor of it. We know what we say when we state this, for we had the opinion of nineteen-twentieths of the citizens on that strip in regard to this matter before the editor of the Sentinel had thought of moving to this country.

Vote for W. R. Griffith for Sup't Pub. Inst.

What our County Board of Supervisors Have Done.

The Board of Supervisors of this county, at their last meeting on the 14th ult., no doubt intended to make an appropriation of twenty-five hundred dollars for the purpose of building a Court House and Jail at Americus. They proceeded upon the supposition that they had made such an appropriation, and ordered that the bonds of the county be immediately issued to building commissioners to that amount. The vote upon the supposed appropriation was as follows: A. I. Baker, Z. Stubbs, R. Best, S. G. Elliott, N. Stevenson—aye. R. Logan, Eli Davis—nay.

We have said that the Board no doubt intended to make such an appropriation; but the facts in the case are these: The last year's Board made such an appropriation in direct opposition to a plain provision of the law. The new Board rescinded the order, as being contrary to law. The present action of the Board has merely rescinded the resolution which rescinded the old order, thus throwing the matter back into the same illegal position it was at first.
Therefore, there is at present no legal appropriation of the kind at all, as will be proved when the matter comes before the courts. Now, so far as Emporia is concerned, we care but little about the matter, as this partisan action of the Board has done our town more good than the enormous tax will do hurt. If the American interest wishes to break faith with the people of the county, as they have done in this transaction, we have no objection; for there are scores of men who have formerly favored America for the county-seat, who have said in our presence that they considered the nomination and election of S. G. Elliott, as Representative in the Territorial Legislature, upon the public and well understood pledge that "the county lines should remain as they are, and the question of permanent location of the county-seat should be submitted to a vote next fall," as leaving the question open and entirely unbiased; and that they considered the recent action of the Board as a breach of good faith and should henceforth oppose America with all their might. We opine that our Kaw friends will find that in this matter they have "sown the wind to reap the whirlwind."

Vote for Ewing, Kingman and Bailey for Supreme Judges.

The Harper's Ferry Trials.
After Brown's conviction of the constructive crimes of treason, conspiracy and murder, Edwin Coppie, of Salem, Ohio, was summarily tried and convicted by the same court on the same indictment. Copeland and Shields Green, negroes of the party, have also been convicted of all except the treason, a negro not being in a legal position to commit that crime. In the cases of Cook, Lynch and Hazlett, who were not in the Harper's Ferry fight, but concerned in the general conspiracy, and arrested in Pennsylvania, there have been no preliminary examinations, and Cook has waived that point, and the court proceeded to his trial and conviction, the same as the others, notwithstanding the efforts of his Indiana friends in his defense. And all have been alike sentenced to be hung. The cases of Lynch and Hazlett will necessarily go over to another term, as the term of the court closed peremptorily on Thursday. Cook, Green, Coppie and Copeland are sentenced to be hanged on Friday, the 16th of Dec. It is supposed that Gov. Wise will respite Brown and execute the whole of the condemned prisoners on the same day.

Vote for O. E. Learnard for District Judge.

Wisconsin Election.
So far as heard from, Randall, (Rep.) for Governor, is 3917 ahead of Hobart, Dem.
The Legislature, thus far, stands—Senate, Republicans, 17; Democrats, 12; Independent, 1. Assembly—Republicans, 54; Democrats, 32; Independent, 3.

Vote for E. P. Bancroft and J. W. Kerr for State Senators.

Logic.—The Lawrence Herald regrets that the Republicans will have so large a majority in the next Territorial Legislature, because "the more equally parties are divided in the Legislature the less the country will be cursed with partisan legislation."

Vote for O. H. Sheldon, B. Wheat, R. W.
Sanders, G. A. Cutler, R. W. Cloud, and G. H. Rees for Representatives.

Mr. R. W. Cloud, of Waterloo township, candidate for State Representative, is one of the strongest Republicans in the county. He is from Ohio, where he belonged formerly to the old Free Soil party which was in existence there before the Republican party was formed. As a man he is honest, capable and outspoken, and will do, whatever and whenever he can, what he deems is for the interest of his constituents. He is decidedly a "people's man," and if elected, as he unquestionably will be, will make a good legislator.

The official returns of the New Jersey election show that the majority for Olden, (Opp.) is 1,629.

Consistency.

Messrs. Editors: I observe, in the last issue of THE NEWS, a card "to the public," signed by J. M. Rankin, in which he says:
"I am credibly informed that the Democracy throughout this judicial district have privately endorsed Dr. Watson as their candidate, and have made arrangements to give him their consolidated vote, expecting through him to divide the Republican vote, and thereby secure their success." Now it puzzles me to see how the Democracy are to "secure their success" by dividing the Republican vote when they have no candidate in the field.

They certainly have the right to express their choice between two Republican candidates if they choose.

Now I wish to say one word with regard to the great love for the Republican party, expressed by Mr. Rankin. This man Rankin went to several gentlemen who were delegates to the Democratic Convention and solicited an endorsement or recommendation from that convention, and gave as a reason why they should do so, that he was conservative, and approached nearer to Democratic views than most other Republicans do. He also labored hard to secure the support of the American Sentinel, at that time an independent paper with Democratic proclivities, and edited, as he well knew, by an active, working Democrat.

These statements I am prepared to prove to the satisfaction of all, if the gentleman requests it.

Vote for A. J. Mitchell for Probate Judge.

Messrs. Editors of THE NEWS:—In the last number of your paper I see an article from the pen of C. V. Eskridge disdaining all connection with a certain bolting movement—if a little wriggling of such a snake in the grass can be called a movement. It is well known that ever since the Republican Convention at Ottumwa, this same man has been trying to cause a split in the Republican ranks; for what object I do not know, unless to elect the Democratic ticket. His past course would seem to justify this view of the case, as it is well known that he has always represented himself to the officials at Leocompton as a Democrat. It is also well known, and can easily be proved if doubted that this man who is so anxious for the "harmony of the party and unanimity of action," did seek the support of Democrats, and promised that if elected he would come out fair and square on the Democratic platform, and co-operate with that party in the Legislature. If Mr. Eskridge or his friends wish for proof of these statements, they can call on ANTI-DOCTRINE.

Vote for D. A. Painter for Clerk of the District Court.

The New York Election.

A telegraphic dispatch dated New York, Nov. 21st, says:
The latest computations at Albany, founded upon complete official returns from all the counties of the State, New York and Kings excepted, increase the majority of Mr. Jones, for Secretary of State, while they leave the result of the Canal Com-missionership in doubt. At present the majorities stand for Jones 1,162; Richmond, 1,004; Skinner, 367; Forest, 450. It will only be when the full returns of New York and Kings counties are received that the result will be ascertained.

It must be borne in mind that the Democrats and Americans both united against the Republicans in New York, otherwise the Republicans would have swept that State like a whirlwind.

"A Good Nomination."

Under this head, the Independent Democrat, (N. H.) the leading Republican paper of New England, says:

"We notice that our friend L. D. Bailey, formerly of Bradford, this State, has been nominated by the R-republicans, as one of the Supreme Court Judges of Kansas, under the new State Constitution recently adopted by the people. It is a good nomination, and we trust we shall be able, in due time, to chronicle the election of Mr. Bailey to the important and honorable position for which he has been selected by the Republicans, of whom there is no one more unflinching and true-hearted—and of which his talents, integrity, and legal ability and attainments all render him eminently worthy."

The Leavenworth Daily Register has been changed from a morning to an evening paper. The Register is a good paper—sound and reliably Republican, and we wish it success. We are indebted to its publisher, Jeff. L. Dugger, Esq., for the regular receipt of the daily in exchange for THE NEWS.

BRODERICK'S SUCCESSOR.—Judge H. P.
Hann, of Marysville, has been appointed by Gov. Weller United States Senator, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the death of Mr.
Broderick. Judge H. is a native of Kentucky, and is said to be intensely Southern in his political views.

The St. Louis Daily Bulletin has been enlarged, and is now a very fine looking paper. We regret to see, however, that the Bulletin has recently changed over to the Democracy. Otherwise than politics, the daily and weekly both compare equal with any papers in that city.

LOCAL.

The Last Rally!

The Republicans of Emporia and vicinity are requested to convene at Temple's Hall on Monday night to talk over our election affairs. Dr. Bancroft and others will make speeches, and there will be enough interest in the occasion to repay all for coming. Let the turnout be large!

The Rev. Mr. Phillips preaches at the Church to-morrow forenoon at 10½ o'clock, and in the evening at 7.

The Ladies' Reading and Benevolent Society will meet at the residence of Mrs. J. C. Haskell on Wednesday next. All are invited to attend.

ET Wood, and all kinds of farm produce, will be taken on subscription to THE EMPORIA NEWS.

Mr. Thompson removed his school last Monday from McElfish's building to the Christian Church.

To Settlers.—We have been informed of several excellent untaken prairie claims within seven or eight miles of Emporia, with stone and water convenient—information of which will be given to actual settlers only, by calling at this office.

STRANGE DISCOVERY.—In cleaning out one of the wells at Messrs. Britton & Priest's mill last Tuesday, a small coffin was found at the bottom, supposed to have contained the body of an infant.
It had the appearance of having been there a long time—perhaps a year or more—so that its contents were almost entirely decomposed.

Thursday was a cold day, rendered exceedingly more uncomfortable by a strong north wind. The attendance at the party that night was small for the preparations made, but nevertheless there was a respectable company at the hall, who seemed to enjoy the dance very well, and we know they did the supper at the Emporia House, for a better one has never been prepared in this country. The management of the whole affair was excellent, and but for the interfering elements, would have resulted with great credit to its design.

A friend who has just returned from Woodson county, says that at the house of Dr. Denn, in Belmont, he saw a large piece of ore on the mantel-piece, which contained sixty per cent. of lead, and from six to eight of silver. He was informed that there were large quantities of the same in that vicinity. He also brought a specimen of very handsome sand-stone, such as is used for sharpening tools, which abounds in inexhaustible quantities there.

Thursday, the 24th, was, we believe, observed as a day of Thanksgiving throughout all parts of the Territory. There were no public demonstrations in Emporia, but the rough table of many a humble dwelling in this region was burdened with the roasted fowl, plum pudding, and pie, after the good old New England style. This was the first real Thanksgiving day we have enjoyed in Kansas.

Our little five year old friend Charley, after looking meditatively over the stove for some time the other evening, gravely remarked that "he didn't think our stove-pipe was large enough." "Why?" inquired some one. "Because," said he, "I don't believe Santa Claus can get down it!" His mother smiled, but no one ventured to doubt the force of his reasoning.

"EXTRA!"—Our friend Mr. Aaron Miller, living three or four miles from here, was in town one day last week to notify his friends (we suppose we were included) that he had a very nice pig to kill. We heard no more about it until yesterday, when somehow the story got to us that Mr. M. had undertaken the job two or three days before and failed. He let it out of the pen—not wishing to shock the porcine nerves of its fellows with a foretaste of their impending fate—but no sooner was porker at liberty than he broke like a quarterhorse, and has only been heard of once since, several miles distant, still "fleeing from the wrath to come!"

The "toughest" story we have heard of, was a man down the Neosho who wanted to cook an old Shanghai rooster for dinner. After failing to kill him or get the feathers off, he thought he would accomplish both by putting him in the pot.
About half an hour after, taking the lid off, the rooster put out his head and croaked!

Extra inducements to country merchants that want to buy clothing to replenish their stocks.
Now is their time. Hammerslough Brothers, corner of Main and Third streets, are now offering their clothing as low as it can be bought in St.
Louis. Their stock is complete in all its branches.
We know the proprietors personally, and found them at all times fair dealers, and can recommend them in every instance to our friends. Be sure and give them a call when you go to Kansas City.

NEOSHO FALLS ITEMS.—We know of no section of country which holds out better inducements for actual settlers than that about Neosho Rapids, in the south-east portion of this county. There are plenty of good vacant prairie claims in that vicinity, and if settlers cannot be suited with the untaken lands, we advise them to call on Dr. G. J.
Tallman or H. S. Sleeper, both of whom have plenty of number one land for sale at the very lowest figures.

Mr. P. Harvey will soon resume work on his flouring mill, which for some time has been stopped on account of the hard times.

Mr. F. R. Page (whose advertisement appears in THE NEWS) has just opened a large and very fine stock of clothing at the Rapids, which he purchased at the East, and sells low. Mr. J. S.
Pigman keeps a good stock of family groceries there. "Jeff" is a clever fellow, if he is a Democrat; and we know that he will give satisfaction to all who purchase of him.

The Neosho Rapids Hotel is in full blast, and is kept by an accommodating gentleman—Mr.
Tracy. Any person happening that way will find accommodations unsurpassed.

SPECIAL NOTICE.—All who subscribed towards building the Christian Church, Emporia, and have not paid, are requested to come forward and settle with the undersigned, in order to relieve those who have incurred expense in its erection.
S. G. BROWN, Treasurer.

ANNOUNCEMENTS.

To the Public.
Yielding to the earnest request of friends, I have consented to become an independent candidate for Judge of the 5th Judicial District, and respectfully solicit the suffrage of my fellow-citizens.
Nov. 19, 1859. J. H. WATSON.

NEW ADVERTISEMENTS.

NEW CLOTHING STORE
AT NEOSHO RAPIDS.

F. R. PAGE

WOULD respectfully inform the citizens of Neosho Rapids and surrounding country, that he has just returned from the East with a large and select stock of CLOTHING AND GENTLEMEN'S FURNISHING GOODS.

He also intends keeping a stock of Boots and Shoes, Hats and Caps, and in fact every article of clothing usually worn by the male portion of the human family.
All I ask is that any person wishing anything in the clothing line will call and examine my stock and find out my prices.
Terms, cash.

FURNITURE MAKING!

IN EMPORIA.

F. W. HANFORD would respectfully announce that he has erected a shop on Sixth avenue, where he is prepared to manufacture to order Tables, Bedsteads, Bureaus, Book Cases, Wash-stands, Lounges, &c., At low rate. I will also Repair, Clean and Varnish Old Furniture, so as to make it look as good as new.

Those in want of any work in my line will please give me a call.
Lumber, and most kinds of farm produce taken in part pay for work. 119y

Estrayed.

FROM Emporia, about two weeks ago, a yoke of work OXEN—one a stag, black, with two white spots on each flank, and one in the forehead —had a bell on when he left; the others large oxen, brown color, mixed with white behind, and large horns. A liberal reward will be paid for information where they may be found.
Emporia, Nov. 19, 1859. JOHN SUTTLE.

Taken Up.

BY the subscriber, in Cottonwood township, seven miles west of Emporia, in December last, three STEERS: One red and white, 5 years old, both ears cropped, wide horns and staggy.
The second, a pale red and white, fixed back, black flanks, marked along the right ear and slit in the left. The third, four years old, red and brindled, white face, small of his age, marked
